

Which was referred to the Worcester county delegation.

Mr. Smith, of Baltimore city, presented a petition from shippers and dealers of flour in the city of Baltimore, praying for certain penalties in regard to flour inspections;

Which was referred to the committee on Inspections.

Mr. Worthington presented a petition from sixty-three voters of Montgomery county, praying for the enactment of a law providing for the sale of free negroes or mulattoes for the payment of debts contracted by them;

Which was referred to the committee on Colored Population.

Mr. Day presented a petition from seventy-one subscribers, praying for the opening of a road from Blakely's Mill in Howard county, to Baker's Shop in Carroll county;

Which was referred to the Carroll and Howard county delegations.

Mr. Ford, of Baltimore county, presented a petition from D. S. Mercer and fifty-five other citizens of Baltimore county, praying for the passage of the Green Spring Avenue Charter;

Which was ordered to lie on the table.

Mr. Rogers presented the memorial from Joseph Simmes and others members of the City Council of Baltimore city, in relation to an act proposing to incorporate the Green Spring Avenue Company;

Which was ordered to lie on the table.

Mr. Rogers presented the memorial of John S. A. Smith, of Baltimore county, in relation to an act proposing to charter the Green Spring Avenue Company;

Which was ordered to lie on the table.

Mr. Worthington presented a petition from ninety voters of Montgomery county, praying for the passage of a law for the protection of birds in said county;

Which was referred to the Montgomery county delegation.

Mr. Harrington presented a petition for a change in the inspection laws, to authorise the Governor to appoint the inspectors;

Which was referred to the committee on Inspections.

Mr. Walker presented a petition from Thomas H. Mory, Abijah Johnson, Wm. Dorney and thirty-one citizens of Baltimore county, asking for a law for the protection of birds;

Which was referred to the committee on Agriculture.

Mr. Worthington presented a petition from twenty-five citizens of Montgomery county, praying for the passage of a law for the protection of birds in said county;